DEDICATION

TO OUR FRIEND AND ADVISOR WHOSE GUIDANCE AND UNTIRING PATIENCE WILL ALWAYS REMAIN IN OUR MEMORIES AS AN INSPIRATIONAL GOAL.

RALPH M. JONES

YOUR HIGH SCHOOL HAS GIVEN YOU A CHANCE TO SEE AND WORK TOWARD HIGH STANDARDS OF CHARACTER AND ACHIEVEMENT. IF YOU WOULD REALIZE THE POSSIBILITIES WHICH ARE YOURS, YOU MUST UNDERSTAND THAT AS YOU REACH EACH NEW GOAL OR STANDARD IT BECOMES A STEP WHICH LIFTS YOU SO THAT YOU CAN SEE ANOTHER HIGHER GOAL TO BE ATTAINED. SCHOOL DAYS SHOULD TRAIN YOU TO EDUCATE YOURSELF AFTER YOU HAVE GRADUATED.

I FEEL THAT YOUR DEDICATION OF THE 1937 BULLDOG—TOGETHER WITH THE CHANCE TO KNOW YOU AND WORK WITH YOU — HAS MADE MY EXPERIENCE IN CROWN POINT RICHER THAN IT COULD OTHERWISE HAVE BEEN. MAY YOUR FUTURE FULFILL THE PROMISE YOUR HIGH SCHOOL WORK HAS SHOWN.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the year 1933, eighty-five freshmen started the four year climb up the Mountain of Learning. Our motto was "Not to the top, but still climbing". Miss Holland, Mr. Church and Miss Wright were the guides for this trip. We were going to plant a blue and silver flag at our goal and present the victor with our class flower, the tea rose. The leaders on the first-year climb were Georgia Carroll, Eugene Cook, Homer Randolph, Phyllis Burroughs, and Dick Calvin. Other "climbers" were also prominent on that trip: Mary Lou Harper and Milton Carlson were elected freshman king and queen; and Mary Scull, Georgia Carroll, and Barbara Heide were cast in the operetta, "Sun-bonnet Sue". Our only activity that year took place when we stopped at a wayside inn and sponsored a dance. The only thing to sadden the first part of our climb was the death of Robert Hoffman.

George Vinnedge, Elizabeth Rettig, Jack Turner, Dick Calvin, and Mary Lou Harper led the second lap of the climb with the same guides as before. We climbed twice on this climb. The first time was for a George Washington dance; and the second was at the end of the climb: a weiner roast at the hut known as the Fair Grounds. The more prominent members this year were: Georgia Carroll and Floyd Seramur as sophomore king and queen; Milton Carlson and Floyd Seramur, who won laurels in basketball; Bill Howe and Allen Danks, who represented our class in the operetta, "The Singer of Naples". Remember Allan Danks' marcel for the operetta?

The third lap of the four-year climb was by far the hardest because there were such large rocks of finance to overcome. Those who led the climb this trip were Elizabeth Rettig, Doris Rose, Marilyn Shisler, and Gordon Anderson, the class officers. Georgia Carroll was president of the Student Council. Milton Carlson and Barbara Heide were the junior king and queen. Marjorie Frame and Georgia Carroll were charter members of the Crown Point National Forensic League as a result of their excellent debating. We stopped at another wayside inn to rest after overcoming one rock of finance by sponsoring a play. John Baldwin, Phyllis Burroughs, Mary Scull, Allen Danks, Mary Lou Harper, Elvera Cox, James Paryzek, Norman Kaper, Elizabeth Rettig, Dorothy Holloway, and Marjorie Frame all "strutted their stuff" in the play, "Growing Pains". Mary Scull, Georgia Carroll, Warren Brown, Leslie Conquest, Marjorie Frame, and Barbara Heide were members of the cast of the high school play, "New Fires". Another rock of finance was overcome by sponsoring a show, "Gay Deception". On this lap of the climb Allen Danks and Charles VanDenburgh won honors in football; Floyd Seramur, Milton Carlson, Oscar Mills, Leslie Conquest, and Clifford Henderson received letters in basketball. By far the nicest stopping point on this trip was the Inn at which we stayed for the junior-senior banquet and prom which climaxed the third part of our trip with only one more lap to reach our goal.

John Wheeler, Jack Turner, Ruth Kammert, Lester Bixenman, and Marilyn Shisler were the leaders of the climb on our last lap together. Our guides were Mrs. Allman, Miss Wright, and Mr. Jones. Many of our members were fast climbers during this last lap. Harry Newton, Jack Turner, Clifford Henderson, Gordon Anderson, Howard Hartung, Allen Danks, Charles VanDenburgh, Homer Randolph, and Floyd Seramur won the football laurels. Gordon Anderson, Milton Carlson, Floyd Seramur, and Clifford Henderson won sweaters and letters in basketball, and of course the two managers, John Wheeler and John Baldwin, won recognition for their work. Marjorie Frame, Mary Scull, Clifford Henderson, Jeanette Condon, Pauline Henderson, John Baldwin, Warren Brown and Barbara Heide won letters in band. Marjorie Frame, Mary Scull, and Barbara Heide received medals and honors for debate. We stopped at another inn; this time it was to sponsor a show, "Sing, Baby, Sing." Georgia Carroll, Elizabeth Rettig and Mary Lou Harper represented our class on the girls' varsity basketball team. Georgia Carroll was editor-in-chief, and Warren Brown, Marjorie Frame, Norman Kaper, George Vin-nedge, and Anna Kasarski were members of this year's INKLINGS staff. Doris Rose, Ruth Kammert, Edith Swanson, Georgia Ammerman, Warren Brown, Dorothy Holloway and Alice Diamond did the makeup and printing work for the paper. At the Halloween Carnival, Elizabeth Rettig and Gordon Anderson were senior king and queen. Elizabeth Rettig was president of the student council the first half of the fourth year's climb and Barbara Heide the last half. We gave a play in connection with the dramatics department when we stopped at the next hut. Allen Danks, Mary Scull, Edith Swanson, Bernice Bastiani, Warren Brown, Doris Rose, Howard Hartung, and Dorothy Holloway were members of the cast. Many members have dropped out on our trip until there are only sixty-four who will reach the goal. Ten of these sixty-four are in the National Honor Society: Ruth Kammert, John Wheeler, Alice Diamond, Mary Scull, Georgia Carroll, Marjorie Frame, Edith Swanson, Doris Rose, Elizabeth Rettig, and Barbara Heide. After all of the activities that go along with attaining the goal on the Mountain of Learning: graduation, baccalaureate, the prom, we will be ready to award the bouquet of tea roses as a prize and we will plant our blue and silver flag in the memory of CPHS. We have tried to follow our motto, and although we have climaxed our four-year climb, we still are "not to the top, but still climbing".

SENIOR WILL

After four hectic and nerve wracking years of most strenuous mental labor (?), we the class of 1937, being in sound mind and body do hereby leave, will and bequeath all of our (incomparable) abilities and worldly goods to our fellow students.

Georgia Ammerman wills her studious ability to Ruth Cooper.

Gordon Anderson bequeaths his blond hair and baby blue eyes to "Whitey" Hofferber.

John Baldwin leaves all of his free evenings for Vivian Nielsen.

Bernice Bastiani bequeaths her "Mae West Strut" to June Thompson.

Lester Bixenman leaves his winning ways with the girls to George Brooks, Careful "Brooksie".

Evelyn Bowen leaves her tap dancing ability to Bob Welsh who has a failing for that type of past time.

Warren Brown bequeaths his use of the dictionary to Dick Hill.

Felicitas Burbulis bequeaths her love for typing to Wilbur Kruger.

Phyllis Burroughs bequeaths her inability of self-control to Becky Lamson.

Dick Calvin wills his rooms at Harper's to any boy desiring to see Marv Lou often.

Cecilia Carl leaves her ability of "silly" and "dumb" actions to Dorothy Fronek.

Milton Carlson bequeaths his sideburns to Wilbur Kors.

Norma Carlson bequeaths her height to anyone desiring a job as a circus midget.

Georgia Carroll wills her duty of watching over her "young" brothers to anyone who can handle them.

Jean Collins leaves her ability of riding a bicycle to Betty Kindberg.

Jeanette Condon wills her ability to get to school early to Vera Mae Phillips. (Heaven knows she needs it.)

Leslie Conquest bequeaths his height and slenderness to LaVerne Hack.

Cora Mae Coppage leaves her curly locks to Jack Connelly.

Elvera Cox wills her high-hatness to Marie Flatheau.

Stanleigh Cribben bequests his unruly hair to Merle Dille.

Allen Danks wills his ability of doing nothing and having a good time doing it to anyone who wants it.

Alice Diamond and Clifford Henderson will their "loving" ability to Ferne Purdy and Jim Wagner.

Rose Dovichi wills her many proposals to Mary Weber. That is if she wants to get married early.

Wayne Dudley wills his ability of keeping people in suspense over his bum jokes to Mr. Jones.

Ruth Fauser wills her make-up to Marie Middleton.

Leonella Fischer bequeaths her "plumpness" to her sister Eileen.

Marjorie Frame bequeaths her debating ability to Carol Jean Martin.

John Hargrove bequeaths his many "country feminine attractions" to his brother Sam.

Mary Lou Harper wills her "win-some ways" to Dorothy Platt.

Howard Hartung leaves his woman-killing tendencies to Bob Youkey.

Barbara Heide wills her musical ability to Paul Farster whom we hope will enjoy it.

Pauline Henderson wills Harold Weiler to anyone who can handle him.

Kenneth Herlitz bequeaths his farming ability to Tom Adkins. (You might need it some day Tom.)

Dorothy Holloway bequeaths her dramatic and speech ability to anyone who is lucky and successful enough to obtain this talent.

Donald Hoover bequeaths his love for hunting to Hilding Holmquist.

William Howe leaves his girlfriend (?) in care of Grant Dillabaugh.

Ruth Kammert wills her brother to everyone. (P. S. No one person could handle him.)

Norman Kaper bequeaths his vocabulary to the person that can exist under the stain of it.

Anna Kasarski leaves her dark complexion to Florence Luebcke.

Fred Kleine wills his ape-like tendencies to Harold Fricke.

Marie Luebcke wills her rosy cheeks to Eva Meyers.

Edward Luke wills all of his girl friends at Lowell to Wilbur Hoshaw. That is, all but one.

Harry Newton wills his Civic recitations to any person that wishes to get in bad with Mr. Kirkpatrick.

James Paryzek bequeaths his ability to sleep in Civic class to anyone that is a sound sleeper.

Anthony Petrovick leaves his ability to distinguish one Bruce triplet from another to "Sparrow" Briggs.

Homer Randolph bequeaths his farm duties to Chuck Clark while he spends his time in the city with Jeanette.

Elizabeth Rettig bequeaths her "shyness" to Doris Kaldahl. (She sure can use a little.)

Harold Ross wills his angelic ways to "Pete" Burge.

Helen Rouhselange bequeaths her desire to attending dances and night clubs to Ila Wemple.

Mary Scull wills her baking ability to Karl Krost.

Floyd Seramur bequeaths his dreamy hours in school to "Wide-Awake" McKnight.

Ethel Mae Sering needs everything she has.

Marilyn Shisler bequeaths her many heart aches over not having a boy to Jane Smith.

Edith Swanson leaves her "Merrillville popularity" to the next girl that moves to Merrillville.

Jack Turner has nothing to leave because Lover-Boy took everything away from him.

Andres Tyler leaves Dorothy Severance under the care of Roman Goszewski.

Charles VanDenburgh wills his "Model T" to anyone who can keep it under their control.

John Wheeler bestows his managing ability upon Joe Rudolph who really needs it.

Ann Will leaves her slimness to Mary Patton who should crash the movies when she gets it.

JUNIOR CLASS

The peppiest class of many years has contributed Becky Lamson and Marie Flathau as cheer leaders and loads of pep and enthusiasm. Again the Class of '38" takes the honors in the King and Queen contest—only this time both Bob Youkey and Marie Flathau were crowned.

Welsh, Golden, Brooks, and Wagner have shown much ability on the hardwood floor.

The football squad was made up of the following Juniors, Bob Youkey, Junior Steiner, Kenny Knight, Bob Welsh, Bob Golden, George Brooks and "Chuck" Nassau.

Three of the Junior girls, Fern Purdy,

Becky Lamson and Betty Griesel were chosen as members of the Girls' Varsity team, Ruth Seberger and Marie Flathau receiving Honorable Mention.

"Happy-go-Lucky", the Junior Class Play was a great success, both in entertainment and financially. This play casted Tom Adkins, June Thompson, Dorothy Platt, Bob Youkey, Carol Jean Martin, Kenneth Knight, Franklin Fitch, Marjorie Letz, Doris Kaldahl, Bob Place and Marie Flathau. About $150 was netted on this play.

The class of '38 is very proud to have Mrs. Seamonson and Mr. Kirkpatrick as sponsors.

Class officers for this year are:

PRESIDENT .....	FERN PURDY
VICE-PRESIDENT .....	KENNY KNIGHT
SECRETARY AND TREASURER .....	JIM WAGNER

SOPHOMORE CLASS

A class with many, many accomplishments steps to the front in 1937. A class that is proud to claim La Verne King, Dick Robinson, Herman Knesek, Bob Briggs and Wilbur Hoshaw, varsity basketball and football players. The Bruce triplets, Gladys Kinne, Mildred Dickens and Beatrice Sellers starred in basketball and made the girls' varsity. Dick Hill, Bill Carroll, Charles Clark, Dick Robinson and Clifford McElwee were members of the Boys' Ensemble.

These sophomores sponsored a show, "Pigskin Parade" and were successful in clearing around $40.00. Much credit for this addition to the treasury is due to Charlotte Kaiser and Alice Whitehead.

Ably assisting the sponsors, Miss Taggart, Mr. Bowen and Mr. Ferris, were the class officers:

PRESIDENT .....	MARY DAVIS
VICE-PRESIDENT .....	BILL CARROLL
SECRETARY .....	BEATRICE SELLERS
TREASURER .....	CHARLOTTE KAISER

FRESHMAN CLASS

Enrolled in September was a nice group of freshmen who took their place in the activities of Crown Point High School. From this class came some fine football material: Junior Hoshaw, Orville Buche, George Carroll, and Joe Rudolph, freshman manager.

Orville Buche and Anna Nassau were King and Queen candidates.

In the person of Martha Young seems to be possibilities for a good debater. Martha was the only freshman to reach the finals of the speech contest held by the school board.

CLASS OFFICERS

PRESIDENT .....	DONALD CASEY
VICE-PRESIDENT .....	PATRICIA PETTIBONE
SECRETARY .....	ANNA NASSAU
TREASURER .....	JANET PLACE

Many of the freshmen are active members of the band and special chorus groups, and are hoping to gain recognition for their work.

Under the able guidance of Mr. Lutz and Miss Jones, the freshman class of '41 will make history in the high school of Crown Point.

CHEER LEADERS

The Junior High has three cheer leaders: Velda Seramur, Helen Tennant, and Wanda Anderson. We hope that they will continue their work.

CLASS MEETINGS

The class decided to hold one meeting each week. Thursday was day decided upon. We discussed various topics which concerned the class.

ACTIVITIES

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council of Crown Point High was elected early in the 1936 year, Elizabeth Rettig being made president; Leslie Conquest, vice-president; and Marilyn Shisler, secretary. Mrs. Seamonson, Mr. Erwin, and Mr. Jones acted as sponsors.

The members of the council were active during the National Education Week in November. A committee appointed by the council has worked with Mr. Lindley throughout the year and has produced some very fine assembly programs. By the election of the council, several students were guests of the Rotary Club during the winter.

The second semester Student Council was organized shortly after the beginning of the second semester. This time Barbara Heide became president; Bob Place, vice-president; and Marilyn Shisler remained as secretary.

This year's newspaper staff accomplished many things. They aroused a great deal of interest in a school paper which had been dead for the past six years; they won the third prize in a county contest sponsored by the Lake County Tuberculosis Association; sent Marjorie Frame and Georgia Carroll as delegates to the annual High School Press Convention held at Franklin College, and were admitted to Quill and Scroll, a national journalistic fraternity.

Crown Point's chapter of the Young Men's Christian Association has attained a new high this year under the leadership of its president, Leslie Conquest, who is helped by the following officers: Andres Tyler, vice-president; Bill Howe, secretary; Don Pettit, treasurer; and John Baldwin, sargeant-at-arms. The club has made a great success sponsoring the check room. It has more members this year than last since all high school boys are allowed to join. They have had five or six well-known men in school and town give talks on various vocations in which the boys are interested.

The boys are now working with the Girl Reserves in taking dancing lessons in order that they will be able to put on better dances with more people taking part. Even Mr. Jones, the Hi-Y sponsor, is taking them.

The Girl Reserves gave a chili supper for the Hi-Y. Now the boys are planning to return this by giving some kind of entertainment for the girls. Also they are planning to send certain boys to different conventions for Hi-Y clubs as was done last year by the club. Andres Tyler brought back a lot of interesting and valuable information from a national convention at Berea, Kentucky.

Hi-Y members this year have done much within the school and community by living up to their slogan: Clean speech, clean living, clean sports, and clean scholarship. The members by doing this have shown a marked superiority over the rest of the boys in school as far as grades are concerned, showing that the club has been successful.

GIRL RESERVES

The Girl Reserves club has done very well under the supervision of its leaders.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Mr. Baker, R. Kammert, G. Carroll, E. Swanson, M. Scull, J. Wheeler
M. Frame, B. Heide, D. Rose, E. Rettig, A. Diamond

This year's National Honor Society is made up of nine girls and one boy. At the end of four years of high school work, these students were among the twenty seniors who ranked scholastically in the upper third of the graduating class. The faculty then elected ten of the eligible twenty students to become the 1937 members of the Crown Point chapter of the National Honor Society. The faculty's decision was based largely upon the number of extra-curricular activities in which those considered took part.

Mr. Baker, National Honor Society sponsor, arranged a dinner party for May 19, honoring the members.

All of the Society's members will have their names engraved on a bronze plate and placed on the National Honor Society plaque which hangs in the downstairs hallway of the school.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC CLUB

Athletics for the girls in Crown Point High was started in earnest this year with the organization of the G. A. A. with Miss Wright as sponsor.

In the late fall a baseball tournament was in play on the school field and was won by the sophomore team. More baseball will be played in the spring.

In early January a preliminary basketball tournament was held and was won easily by the snappy sophomore team which has no rivals. The second tournament was held in February with the sophomores and seniors clashing at the Community Gym, before the Flora game on February 12, for the final game of the tournament. The sophomores nosed out the seniors by the overwhelming score of 41-10.

Miss Wright then announced the girls who were on the varsity. They immediately organized and elected Elizabeth Rettig, senior, captain of the team. Practice was then started for the game with the alumni, which was to be played before the Lowell game on February 19. The C. P. High School girls came out on top with a score of 18-12.

Each class also has a volley-ball team, and a game is in play at noon every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.

The ping-pong tournament has been started as the BULLDOG goes to press, but no finals have been played as yet.

As the school year progresses more tournaments and contests will be played between baseball teams, tennis players and other girl athletes. In late spring hiking parties will also be in order.

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

C. J. Martin, M. Scull, B. Heide, Miss Richey, G. Carroll, M. Frame

This organization was organized nationally in the year 1922, to promote the interests of interscholastic debate, oratory, and public speaking by encouraging a spirit of fellowship and by conferring upon deserving candidates a worthy badge of distinction.

In the year 1936 Crown Point High School became a member with five charter members: Ray Bjorklund, Jack Heide, Dick Joyce, Georgia Carroll and Marjorie Frame. This year three more members were added to the list through their participation on the sectional champion debate team. The three new members are Carol Jean Martin, Mary Scull, and Barbara Heide.

To be eligible for the National Forensic League you must be in the upper two-thirds of your class, must have participated in enough speech contests to receive the Degree of Merit and must be voted in by the local chapter.

In the state of Indiana at the present time there are only seventeen chapters. In the entire United States there are four hundred and seventy-four chapters.

The schedule for the debate team of the years is as follows:

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The Future Farmers of America Club has increased its enrollment to twenty-two regular members, five associate members, and Mr. Cutler as an honorary member. The advisor of this progressive club is Mr. Lutz.

New members are always called "green hands", and after belonging to the F. F. A. more than one year they become regulars. This club studies agricultural crops and also makes up the F. F. A. basketball team. This year's team was successful in winning four out of their five scheduled games.

Leading the F. F. A. members through a successful 1936-37 season were:

Fourth Row—Youkey, Karn, Steger, Connelly, Griesel
Standing—R. LaCroix, Hill, Beck, Nichols, Pierce, Mr. Ready, bandmaster, Mr. Erwin, principal, Hull, Kneseck, Paryzek, McFadden, Weiler, Lewis, C. Henderson, Hershey, O. Thompson, Bisselberg, P. Henderson

This organization, like many others, has shown great improvement throughout the past year. There have been presented several free concerts, at which the community had the privilege of hearing Harold Woolridge, former clarinet soloist with the famous Sousa Band, and C. F. Basse, xylophone soloist with the Purdue Band. Guest conductors at these concerts were R. V. Roesler of Froebel and Bertram Francis of Hobart.

During the winter a new bass clarinet, alto clarinet, French horn, bass saxophone, glockenspiel, and a set of tympani were added to the school's supply of instruments. These additions have been of great help to both the appearance and performance of the band.

Mr. Ready and the band members are looking forward to entering the district contest held at La Porte in April and are hoping to come home with high honors.

GIRLS' TRIPLE TRIO

Three years ago Mrs. Thomas organized the high school girls' Triple Trio, which has progressed rapidly even in the short period of its existence. The Triple Trio is well-known and has established a good reputation for the choral department of Crown Point High School, yet this group meets just one afternoon after school each week for practice.

There are five girls who have been faithful to the Triple Trio for three years: Georgia Carroll, Barbara Heide, Mary Lou Harper, Elizabeth Rettig, and June Thompson. Fern Purdy, Carol Jean Martin, Edith Swanson, and Doris Rose have sung with the group for one year.

This organization does not cease being active when the school year is completed, but it continues to sing at programs of various kinds during the summer months.

During this past school year, these singers have had no less than thirty invitations to entertain at different programs, these invitations coming from almost every civic and church organization in Crown Point.

When the seniors graduate this year, there will be six vacancies; but these empty places will be filled by the best members of the Cadet Ensemble, another musical group similar to the Triple Trio. The Cadet Ensemble is also under the able direction of Mrs. Florence Thomas.

The Girls' Cadet Ensemble, a newly organized choral group, is under the direction of Mrs. Thomas.

A year ago the girls were selected to form a Girls' Cadet Triple Trio, which appeared and sang at many places.

Many of the girls joined the first Triple Trio, and so it was decided that a new choral group be formed. This group was named the "Girls' Cadet Ensemble".

This organization has twenty members: Lois Woods, Norma Roll, Kathleen Kaper, Jean Firman, Helen Bruce, Leone Bruce, Jeanette Bruce, Emma Niemeyer, Bernice Bastiani, Patricia Pettibone, Annabelle Luke, Martha Young, Vera Mae Phillips, Irene Rouhselange, Laverne Hack, Marie Middleton, Rosemary Biegle, Mary Dance, Gladys Gard, and Paulette Danks.

The Ensemble made its first appearance at the Woman's Auxiliary meeting, where they sang a group of four songs.

On March 18 the Business and Professional Women's Club invited the Ensemble to present a program of spring songs.

Although the Girls' Cadet Ensemble is very young, it has achieved great success. From its ranks members will be chosen to fill the places of the Triple Trio girls who are graduating this year.

BOYS' ENSEMBLE

Here is a group of high school fellows who are winning their laurels in choral music. The Boys' Ensemble, which was organized last year, is a group of boys who sing in the choral class of C. P. H. S., and are especially chosen by Mrs. Thomas for the ensemble by reason of their singing ability. This year the ensemble numbers twelve, and they sing four-part music. Besides the time that the ensemble members give to their regular singing classes, they also apply time to special practice classes every Friday after school.

These boys are called upon at various times during the school year to entertain different clubs, societies, and organizations in and around Crown Point; and they certainly enjoy this part of their work.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

First Row—Keehn, Bastiani, Ross, Lewis, Carlson, Clark, C. Kouder, Rudolph, manager
 Second Row—Wheeler, senior manager; Newton, Turner, Henderson, Anderson, Hartung, captain; Danks, VanDenBurgh, Randolph, Seramur
 Third Row—Coach Earl Ferris, Stiener, Herman Knesck, Briggs, Knight, R. Kouder, Brooks, King, Robinson, Hoshaw, Wagner, Youkey, Fitch
 Fourth Row—Golden, Welsh, Harvey Knesek, O. Buche, Holmquist, Nassau, W. Buche, Traves, Gervais, Carroll, Pierce

In late August when Coach Ferris issued a call for football practice, about 40 boys responded and began the grinding practice which makes a football team. The first game of the season was on September 11 at St. Mary's field.

GRIFFITH—7 BULLDOGS—0
 The boys put up a good fight but the Griffith eleven proved to be too much for them.

LOWELL—26 BULLDOGS—6
 September 18 all loyal Crown Point fans went to Lowell to see the old rivals play. The highlight of the game was Seramur's spectacular run from back of the 50 yard line for a touchdown.

CATHOLIC CENTRAL—19 BULLDOGS—0
 Again the Bulldogs bowed to stronger opponents. A good crowd supported the boys at the Hammond field.

KENTLAND—0 BULLDOGS—12
 October 2 was the date of the Kentland game in which the Crown Point eleven chalked up their first victory of the season with the score of 12 to 0. During the half of this game the band made its first appearance of the season.

RENSELAER—8 BULLDOGS—0
 The game with the boys from Rensselaer was played on October 12. A large crowd from home saw the Rensselaer eleven score a touch-down almost immediately after the start of the game. Then the Bulldogs clamped down and held the southern fellows for no more scoring.

HOBART—13 BULLDOGS—0
 On a field which was a sea of mud, the Crown Point boys were defeated by their more powerful rivals from Hobart on October 16.

LOWELL—2 BULLDOGS—0
 In their return game the Lowell Red Devils came to town with the idea of giving the Crown Point lads a good trouncing, but our boys held the powerful team scoreless until the last few minutes of play when a "safety" was completed giving the Devils two points. The game ended with the score standing 2-0 for Lowell.

So ended the 1936 football season of Crown Point High, not a success as far as victories were concerned but as far as prospects for the next year the fans are very optimistic.

On December 7, the newly organized Civic Club of Crown Point honored the team and coaches by sponsoring a large banquet. Hal Totten, nationally known sports commentator, was the principal speaker of the evening.

The student body, as well as the coach and townspeople, were proud to hear that Gordon Anderson, center, and senior playing his first year of football, was one of the nineteen centers chosen from high school teams of Indiana for honorable-mention on the official all-state football squad. The team is chosen every year by Dick Miller, International News Service sports writer.

Here's to a bigger and better team for 1937.

The Junior High School organized their basketball team this year under the sponsorship of the intramural athletics departments with Ted Levi as their coach. A great deal of credit should be given these boys and Mr. Levi as they put in much hard work at practice. The team was rather slow in getting under way at the beginning of the year, but later the season took a successful turn and ended with 12 victories and 5 defeats.

The Junior High sponsored a tournament on January 16, with four teams competing: Ross Township, Riley, Griffith, and Crown Point. The Crown Point boys lost in an over-time final game to Ross Township. These boys are the future high school varsity players, and it looks as though we may have good varsity basketball for some years to come.

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

The 1937 Girls' Varsity was made up of players from the three upper classes:

Seniors—Elizabeth Rettig, captain: Mary Lou Harper, Georgia Carroll.

Juniors—Betty Griesel, Rebecca Lamson, Fern Purdy.

Sophomores—Helen Bruce, Jeanette Bruce, Leone Bruce, Gladys Kinne, Mildred Dickens, Beatrice Sellers.

These girls were chosen from their respective teams as a result of several class tournaments held earlier in the season.

On February 19, the night of the Lowell game, the varsity played their only scheduled game of the season with the alumni, who represented the classes of '36, '35, '34, and '30.

At the end of the first half of the game, the alumni were leading the varsity girls 10 to 8. The varsity put in a new six who were able to forge ahead and attain a score of 18 to 12 as the gun sounded.

HUMOR

Carol Jean Martin: I don't want to buy your crackers; they tell me the mice are always running over them.

Knesek: That ain't so, why the cat sleeps in the barrel every night.

Speedy Pierce colliding with Dick Nichols: From the looks of you there must have been a famine.

Dick: By the looks of you, you're the one who caused it.

George V.: I've given up playing billiards since the cold weather.

John P.: How's that?

George V.: Every time the three balls get together I am reminded of my overcoat.

Mrs. Carlson: There's a salesman here with a mustache.

Milt: Tell him I have a mustache.

Miss Taggart: Do you enjoy Kipling?

Dumb Freshman: Well I don't know. I can't say I've ever tried. How does one kipple?

Teacher: What tense is "I am beautiful?"

Class (in unison): Past tense.

Mrs. Seamonson in World History Class: It took hundreds of years to build those pyramids.

Dick Hill: Oh I see! It was a government job.

Miss Wright: Can you give me an example of a commercial appliance used in ancient times?

D. Holloway: Yes, mam, the loose-leaf system used in the Garden of Eden.

Bill Carroll: What caused the explosion at your house?

Kirk: Powder on my coat sleeve.

Dudley, thinking himself very collegiate went to the principal of our fair school to say goodbye after graduation exercises were over.

Seeing I'm leaving school, said Mr. Dudley, I want to thank you for all I've learned this year.

Oh, don't mention it, replied Mr. Erwin. It was only a trifle.

Milt Carlson: How did you break your leg?

Gorp Haniford: I threw a cigarette in a man hole and stepped on it.

D. Holloway: I've heard fish referred to as a good brain food. Is that true?

Prof. Jones: Yes it is sometimes recommended.

D. Holloway: Well, what would you recommend for me?

Jones: A whale a week for six months ought to help you a little.

Cop: How did you knock this pedestrian down?

Dick Calvin: I didn't knock him down. I just pulled up to him, stopped my car and waited to let him pass. He fainted.

Sering: (To one arm driver): For goodness' sake use two hands.

Chuck Clark: Can't. Gotta steer with one.

Goldie to young boy sucking his thumb: Say, son, don't bite that thumb off. You'll need it some day when you are old enough to travel.

Mr. Allman: Say, Honey, this blueberry pie sure tastes funny.

Mrs. Allman: I wonder if I could have put too much bluing it in.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased by 1.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased by 1.1 million (Office of National Statistics 1999).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of older people in the community. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for older people, which sets out a vision for the future of older people's health and care. The strategy is based on the following principles: older people should be able to live independently and actively in the community; older people should be able to access the services and support they need; and older people should be able to participate in decisions about their care and support. The strategy also sets out a number of key objectives, including: to improve the health and well-being of older people; to reduce the inequalities in health and care between different groups of older people; and to ensure that older people are able to live independently and actively in the community.

The strategy is a key document for the development of older people's services in the UK. It provides a framework for the development of policies and services for older people, and it sets out a number of key objectives that should be achieved by the year 2010.
